

65/... Global efforts for the total elimination of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance and the comprehensive implementation of and follow-up to the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 52/111 of 12 December 1997, in which it decided to convene the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance, and its resolutions 56/266 of 27 March 2002, 57/195 of 18 December 2002, 58/160 of 22 December 2003, 59/177 of 20 December 2004 and 60/144 of 16 December 2005, which guided the comprehensive follow-up to and effective implementation of the World Conference, and in this regard underlining the importance of their full and effective implementation, RES 64/148 PP1

Welcoming the outcome of the Durban Review Conference convened in Geneva from 20 to 24 April 2009 within the framework of the General Assembly in accordance with its resolution 61/149 of 19 December 2006, PP2

Recalling its resolution 64/148 of 26 March 2010 which, amongst others, called for the 10th Year Commemoration of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action of the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance (WCAR), NEW

Noting the approaching commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the adoption of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action in September 2011, PP3

The EU would suggest the deletion of PP4.

Underlining the fact that the commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the adoption of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action represents an important opportunity for the international community to reaffirm its commitment to the eradication of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, and encouraging States and communities to commemorate the tenth year anniversary in all regions through a wide range of activities, (NEW-HRC 14/16)

Recalling its resolution 64/148 of 26 March 2010 which, amongst others, called for the 10th Year Commemoration of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action of the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance (WCAR), which should contribute to facilitating concrete results on the ground for the eradication of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, including by mobilizing political will at the national, regional and international level.

[EU proposal to merge PP3 and 5]

Recalling all of the relevant resolutions and decisions of the Commission on Human Rights and of the Human Rights Council on this subject, and calling for their implementation to ensure the successful implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, PP4

Noting Human Rights Council decision 3/103 of 8 December 2006, by which, heeding the decision and instruction of the World Conference, the Council established the Ad Hoc Committee of the Human Rights Council on the Elaboration of Complementary Standards, and deeply regrets the slow progress in terms of discharging its mandate, RES 64/148 amended

The EU suggests the deletion of PP8 and OP73.

Bearing in mind the responsibility and obligations of the Human Rights Council emanating from the outcome of the Durban Review Conference, PP6

Recalling its resolution 52/111 of 12 December 1997, in which it decided to convene the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance, [part deleted] and recalling all relevant resolutions and decisions of the UN General Assembly, the Commission on Human Rights and of the Human Rights Council on this subject; [EU – proposed merging of PPs 1, 2, 6, 7 and 8]

Reiterating that all human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights and have the potential to contribute constructively to the development and well-being of their societies, and that any doctrine of racial superiority is scientifically false, morally condemnable, socially unjust and dangerous and must be rejected, together with theories that attempt to determine the existence of separate human races, PP7

Convinced that racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance manifest themselves in a differentiated manner for women and girls and may be among the factors leading to a deterioration in their living conditions, poverty, violence, multiple forms of discrimination and the limitation or denial of their human rights, and recognizing the need to integrate a gender perspective into relevant policies, strategies and programmes of action against racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance in order to address multiple forms of discrimination, PP8

Underlining the primacy of political will, international cooperation and adequate funding at the national, regional and international levels needed to address all forms and manifestations of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, PP9

Expressing concern at recent deeply marked tendencies within numerous societies to characterize migration as a problem and threat to social cohesion, NEW

[EU proposes deletion]

ALT Noting the human rights challenges, including racism and xenophobia, faced by migrants, refugees and asylum-seekers in the enjoyment of their civil, cultural, economic, political and social rights. (based on the report of the special rapporteur)

Alarmed at the increase in racist violence and xenophobic ideas in many parts of the world, in political circles, in the sphere of public opinion and in society at large, inter alia, as a result of the resurgent activities of associations established on the basis of racist and xenophobic platforms and charters, and the persistent use of those platforms and charters to promote or incite racist ideologies, PP10

Underlining also the importance of urgently eliminating continuing and violent trends involving racism and racial discrimination, and conscious that any form of impunity for crimes motivated by racist and xenophobic attitudes plays a role in weakening the rule of law and democracy, tends to encourage the recurrence of such crimes and requires resolute action and cooperation for its eradication, PP11

Expressing grave concern with lack of progress made in the implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, particularly its key paragraphs 157 to 159 of the Programme of Action, NEW

Expressing grave concern that the principal objectives to combat racism, racial discrimination and related intolerance have not been attained, including through the lack of progress made in the implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, and that countless human beings continue to be victims of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance.

(based on the DDPA) [EU]

Welcoming the continued commitment of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to profile and increase the visibility of the struggle against racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, and recognizing the need for the High Commissioner to make this a cross-cutting issue in the activities and programmes of the Office, PP12

Welcoming also, the conclusions and recommendations of the Seventh and Eighth Sessions of the Intergovernmental Working Group on the Effective Implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, 11-22 September 2010, which made recommendations, amongst others, on the commemoration of the tenth of the adoption of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, NEW

ALT Noting with appreciation the holding of the Seventh and Eighth Sessions of the Intergovernmental Working Group on the Effective Implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, 11-22 September 2010, and awaiting further action of the Human Rights Council on the conclusions and recommendations of the Working Group; [EU]

Recognizing the potential of sport as a universal language contributing to educating people on the values of diversity, tolerance and fairness and as a means to combat racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, NEW-A/HRC/13/27

Welcoming the recent hosting of the 2010 and 2014 International Federation of Association Football World Cups in South Africa and in Brazil, respectively; and stressing the importance of making continuing use of these events to promote understanding, tolerance and peace and to promote and strengthen efforts in the fight against racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance. NEW-A/HRC/13/27

I

General principles

1. Acknowledges that no derogation from the prohibition of racial discrimination, genocide, the crime of apartheid or slavery is permitted, as defined in the obligations under the relevant human rights instruments, OP23

2. Expresses its profound concern about and its unequivocal condemnation of all forms of racism and racial discrimination, including related acts of racially motivated violence, xenophobia and intolerance, as well as propaganda activities and organizations that attempt to justify or promote racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance in any form, OP24

3. Re-emphasizes that international cooperation is a key principle in achieving the goal of total elimination of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance and the comprehensive implementation of and follow-up to the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, NEW-par 122 DRC outcome modified

Emphasizes, while acknowledging the primary responsibility of States to implement their obligations under the Convention, that international cooperation and technical assistance play an important role in assisting countries with the implementation of their obligations under it, [EU]

4. Expresses deep concern at inadequate responses to emerging and resurgent forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, and urges States to adopt measures to address these scourges vigorously with a view to preventing their practice and protecting victims, OP25

5. Underlines the imperative need to address all the contemporary forms and manifestations of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, which include, inter alia, incitement to such hatred, racial profiling, propagating racist and xenophobic acts through the cyberspace, with a view to maximising protection for victims, providing legal remedies and combating impunity, NEW

The EU suggests the deletion of OP5.

6. Stresses that States and international organizations have a responsibility to ensure that measures taken in the struggle against terrorism do not discriminate in purpose or effect on grounds of race, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin, and urges all States to rescind or refrain from all forms of racial profiling, OP26

7. Recognizes that States should implement and enforce appropriate and effective legislative, judicial, regulatory and administrative measures to prevent and protect against acts of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, thereby contributing to the prevention of human rights violations, OP27

8. Also recognizes that racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance occur on the grounds of race, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin and that victims can suffer multiple or aggravated forms of discrimination based on other related grounds, such as sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, social origin, property, birth or other status, OP28

Also recognizes that racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance occur on the grounds of race, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin and that victims can suffer multiple or aggravated forms of discrimination based on other related grounds, such as sex, language, religion or belief, political or other opinion, social origin, property, birth or other status [EU]

Reaffirms that any advocacy of national, racial or religious hatred that constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence shall be prohibited by law (...) in accordance with the international obligations of States and that these prohibitions are consistent with freedom of opinion and expression; [EU]

10. Emphasizes that it is the responsibility of States to adopt effective measures to combat criminal acts motivated by racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, including measures to ensure that such motivations are considered an aggravating factor for the purposes of sentencing, to prevent those crimes from going unpunished and to ensure the rule of law, OP30

11. Urges all States to review and, where necessary, revise their immigration laws, policies and practices so that they are free of racial discrimination and compatible with their obligations under international human rights instruments, OP31

12. Calls upon all States, in accordance with the commitments undertaken in paragraph 147 of the Durban Programme of Action, to take all measures necessary to combat incitement to violence motivated by racial hatred, including through the misuse of print, audio-visual and electronic media and new communication technologies, and, in collaboration with service providers, to promote the use of such technologies, including the Internet, to contribute to the fight against racism, in conformity with international standards of freedom of expression and taking all measures necessary to guarantee that right, OP32

ALT Stresses that the right to freedom of opinion and expression constitutes one of the essential foundations of a democratic, pluralistic society and stresses further the role the exercise of these rights can play in the fight against racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance worldwide. [EU]

13. Encourages all States to include in their educational curricula and social programmes at all levels, as appropriate, knowledge of and tolerance and respect for all cultures, civilizations, religions, peoples and countries, as well as information on the follow-up to and implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, OP33

Encourages Invites all States to include in their educational curricula and social programmes at all levels, as appropriate, knowledge of and tolerance and respect for cultural and religious diversity and all cultures, civilizations, religions, peoples and countries, as well as information on the follow-up to and implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, OP33 [EU]

14. Stresses the responsibility of States to mainstream a gender perspective in the design and development of prevention, education and protection measures aimed at the eradication of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance at all levels, to ensure that they effectively target the distinct situations of women and men. OP34

II

International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination

15. Reaffirms that universal adherence to and full implementation of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination are of paramount importance for the fight against racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, and for the promotion of equality and non-discrimination in the world, OP35

16. Expresses grave concern that universal ratification of the Convention has not yet been reached, despite commitments under the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, and calls upon those States that have not yet done so to accede to the Convention as a matter of urgency, OP36

17. Urges, in the above context, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to maintain on its website and issue regular updates on a list of countries that have not yet ratified the Convention and to encourage those countries to ratify it at the earliest, OP37

18. Expresses concern at the serious delays in the submission of overdue reports to the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, which impede the effectiveness of the Committee, makes a strong appeal to all States parties to the Convention to comply with their treaty obligations, and reaffirms the importance of the provision of technical assistance to requesting countries in the preparation of their reports to the Committee, OP38

19. Invites States parties to the Convention to ratify the amendment to article 8 of the Convention on the financing of the Committee, and calls for adequate additional resources from the regular budget of the United Nations to enable the Committee to discharge its mandate fully, OP39

20. Urges all States parties to the Convention to intensify their efforts to implement the obligations that they have accepted under article 4 of the Convention, with due regard to the principles of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and article 5 of the Convention, OP40

21. Recalls that the Committee holds that the prohibition of the dissemination of ideas based on racial superiority or racial hatred is compatible with the right to freedom of opinion and expression as outlined in article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and in article 5 of the Convention, OP41

22. Welcomes the emphasis placed by the Committee on the importance of follow-up to the World Conference and the measures recommended to strengthen the implementation of the Convention as well as the functioning of the Committee, OP42

23. Calls upon Member States to ensure that their responses to the current financial and economic crisis should not lead to increased poverty and underdevelopment and, potentially, a rise in racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance against foreigners, immigrants, persons belonging to national, ethnic, religious and linguistic minorities all over the world. (NEW)

Calls upon Member States to do their utmost to ensure that their responses to the current financial and economic crisis should do not lead to an increased of poverty and underdevelopment and, potentially, a rise in racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance against the most vulnerable groups of the society, including against foreigners, immigrants, persons belonging to national, ethnic, religious and linguistic minorities all over the world, [EU]
